HONOR GUARD BASICS

FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT & FIRE SERVICES

This 3-day intense training class, which combines both classroom and practical applications, will provide you and your department, the knowledge to organize, train, and maintain a department honor guard. With instructors from the fire service, police, and military, you will learn the fundamental maneuvers required by any honor guard unit. From ceremonial movements to marching to flag etiquette to funeral details, this class will prepare you for any situation. Regardless of your previous experience, whether a member of a current honor guard unit, prior military experience, or no instruction of any kind, this course is an essential part of your honor guard training.
